Driver's Licenses

Driving in Korea with an International Driver's License Issued in a Foreign Country

Easy to Find,
Practical Law

Can I drive in Korea with an international driver's license issued in a foreign country?

Easy to Find,
Practical Law

Yes, you can!

Any person with an international driver's license issued by a country (US, Canada, Japan, France, etc.) that joined the 1949 Geneva Convention on Road Traffic and the 1968 Vienna Convention on Road Traffic may drive a vehicle in Korea of the same licensed class for up to 1 year from the date the license holder entered Korea.

However, there are some exceptions.

If you are the cause of a traffic accident while driving in Korea, you may be prohibited from driving in Korea even with an international driver's license.
