Information

The Ministry of Government Legislation (Lee Wan-kyu) met Mr. Vongsey Vissoth, Permanent Deputy Prime Minister of Cambodia who happened to be visiting Korea to attend the 12th Asian Legislative Experts Symposium (ALES), at Government Complex Seoul on Thursday, October 31, 2024, for promoting legislative exchange and cooperation between the two countries.

The Minister introduced the Ministry of Government Legislation as an agency in charge of overseeing and coordinating the legislative affairs of the Korean government, exchanged questions and answers, and discussed measures for cooperation with Cambodia. Permanent Deputy Prime Minister Vongsey Vissoth expressed strong interest in the role of MOLEG and its achievements thus far.

Highlighting the need for the Council of Asian Legislative Institutions (CALI) in order to foster an environment conducive to greater cooperation between Asian nations in response to future legislative issues, Minister Lee Wan-kyu thanked Permanent Deputy Prime Minister Vongsey Vissoth for agreeing to have the Office of the Council of Ministers of Cambodia participate in the CALI. As the Minister of the Office of the Council of Ministers of Cambodia, Mr. Vongsey Vissoth replied by reaffirming his commitment to cooperation, expressing anticipation for CALI to play an important role in the development of legislation across Asia.

Minister Lee remarked: “With a large young population, Cambodia is set to undergo dynamic growth in the coming years. The Ministry of Government Legislation will actively seek legislative exchange and cooperation with Cambodia to achieve common prosperity of two countries.
